From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 3.

Ratiſbon, September 22.

THE Deputy of the Elector of Mentz, communicated to the Diet, the 19th of this Month, a Letter from the Emperor containing in Subſtance, 'That 'his Imperial Majeſty was not ſatisfied with the Agreement made with the Elector of Bavaria for the Security of this Town; becauſe the Bavarian Garriſon did not march out of it within the Time limited by the Imperial Declaration of the 23d of December 1703, but about 7 Months after, ſince the Advantage gain'd at Donawert the 2d of July by the Forces of the Allies, over the Enemy: That the Bavarians not having on their part executed the Conditions of the Treaty concluded by Monſieur Zundt the Envoy of Bavaria, but on the contrary having attempted to put Troops again into this Place; neither his Imperial Majeſty nor Prince Lewis of Baden are oblig'd to obſerve the ſaid Treaty. That as for the Garriſon General Herbeville lately put into this Town, his Imperial Majeſty promiſes they ſhall retire out of it, when it appears the Place ceaſes to be in danger of any Attempts from the Enemy. That his Imperial Majeſty will ſhortly ſend his Commiſſioner to the Diet, now the Envoy of Bavaria has rerir'd from hence. And laſtly, that as for the Franchiſes of the Town, his Imperial Majeſty declares that all the Bavarian Inhabitants who had no part in the late Diſorders, ſhall not be moleſted, provided they keep within the Limits of their Duty; but as for Officers and others concern'd in diſturbing the Peace of the Town and of the Empire, they muſt expect to be queſtion'd for ſo doing. The 20th a Memorial from the Magiſtrates of the City of Ulm was preſented to the Diet, in which they acquaint the Diet with their happy Deliverance out of the Hands of the Enemy, and at the ſame time deſire them to recommend their City to the Emperor's Care, that it may be put into the ſame Condition it was formerly, purſuant to the Reſolution paſs'd in the Diet the 13th of September 1702. The Electreſs of Bavaria having as many Regular Troops on foot in the Country of Bavaria and the Places in which ſhe has Garriſons, as will make a Body of 12000 Men, which may be augmented by the Peaſants that have taken Arms; The Diet have not only written to the King of the Romans to deſire Succours neceſſary to oppoſe any Attempts of the Bavarians, but have recommended it to ſome Members of the Eſtates of Bavaria that are here, to write to the Electreſs of Bavaria, to deſire her to give Directions that no Acts of Hoſtility be done againſt this Town; And at the ſame time to tell her, that if the Diet or any of the Envoys, receive the leaſt Damage, they are reſolv'd to make Repriſals by vigorouſly attacking Bavaria, and particularly Munich, the Place of her Reſidence; but have conſulted General Herbeville about proper Meaſures for its Security. The Nobility of Franconia are ſummon'd to mount on Horſeback, and joyn the Troops that are drawing together to Aichſtat, in order to put a ſtop to the Excurſions of the Bavarians. 'Tis diſcours'd an Aſſembly will be held ſhortly in the Palatinate, at which the King of the Romans and ſome Electors will be preſent, to put the Electors of Bavaria and Cologne under the Ban of the Empire. P. S. To day came two Letters from the Electreſs of Bavaria; one for the Diet, to deſire them to interpoſe their good Offices to diſpoſe the Emperor to treat of an Accommodation with her; the other for our Magiſtrates, to aſſure them that nothing ſhall be attempted on her part againſt this Town, and that they are malicious ill deſigning Perſons, who have rais'd a Report that her Troops would bombard it.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated Octob. 10.

Amſterdam, October 10. The Advices from Vienna tell us, ſome Letters which the Elector of Bavaria had ſent to Munich, were intercepted; by which it appears, that he has given, during his Abſence, full Power to the Electreſs, to treat of and conclude all Affairs, as well Civil as Military, according to her good Pleaſure and for the Good of the Country, enjoyning all his Subjects, and particularly all Governours of his fortified Places, to obey Her, as Princeſs Regent. Which Commiſſion ſhe has communicated to the Eſtates of Bavaria.

Ratiſbon, Sept. 25. All the Bavarian Officers and others of that Nation that are in this Town; are order'd to depart out of it forthwith, unleſs they will take an Oath of Fidelity. 'Tis ſaid the Electreſs of Bavaria has written to the King of the Romans, to excuſe the Action that paſs'd between the Garriſon of Ingoldſtat, and the Imperialiſts commanded by General Auffas, when the latter were oblig'd to abandon the Blockade of that Place.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Oct. 14.

Ratiſbon, October 3. The 29th of laſt Month General Weickel with a Body of between 7 and 8000 Men, came within a League of this Place, and ſeem'd to deſign to bombard it. Whereupon we made Preparations for a vigorous Defence; the Artillery was planted on the Ramparts, and the Imperial Garriſon and Burghers poſted themſelves in the Works. The ſame day General Auffas arriv'd with 15 or 1600 Horſe, which General Herbeville caus'd to take Poſt the next day with ſome other Troops without the Town, under our Cannon, where they began to throw up an Intrenchment, and that day and the next ſome light Skirmiſhes paſs'd. The 1ſt inſtant in the Morning General Weickel decamp'd with his Troops, paſs'd the little River Pfeter, and encamp'd near Haidau 3 Leagnes from hence on the Road to Straubing, where he ſtill continues. 'Tis reported he waits to be joyn'd by ſome other Forces.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 16.

Ratiſbon, October 6. The Bavarian Troops commanded by General Weikel, finding they could do nothing againſt this Place, becauſe of the Precautions

tions uſed by General Herbeville for its Defence, divided themſeves into two Bodies; one of which retir'd to Straubingen, and the other to Landſhut. The latter paſs'd the Danube two Leagues from hence, and plunder'd ſeveral Villages in the Neighbourhood of Neubourg: Likewiſe 200 Men that were left by General Weikel in Donauſtoff, have ſeiz'd and carried into that Place a great number of Cattle that were driving hither from the Frontier of Bohemia. We have begun to build a Fort before the Weſt Gate of this Town, the better to cover it. Two days ago a Bavarian Captain with his whole Company deſerted and came hither to take Service under General Herbeville. The Members of the Eſtates of Bavaria, that are in this Town, having receiv'd an Order to retire out of it with all the other Bavarians, purſuant to a Decree of his Imperial Majeſty's lately ſent hither; ſent a Petition to his ſaid Majeſty the 25th of laſt Month, to beſeech him to revoke that Decree. But have yet receiv'd no Anſwer. General Herbeville waits to be joyn'd by five or ſix Regiments of Horſe and Foot; and after he has receiv'd that Reinforcement he will take the Field, and take Winter Quarters in Bavaria.
